

Office of the Public Advocate

What is the Office of the Public Advocate (OPA)?

OPA is an organisation that helps to protect the rights of people with a disability.

What does OPA do?

OPA can give

- Advice about the rights of people with a disability
- Advocacy and guardianship
- Brochures and information

How to get help

To get advice and information

- Call our Advice Service on 1300 309 337
or TTY: 1300 305 612
- Our office is at Level 1, 204 Lygon Street, Carlton
- Visit our website www.publicadvocate.vic.gov.au
- Write a letter and send it to
Level 1, 204 Lygon Street, Carlton, Victoria, 3053