Casual Support Worker Recruitment Information Sessions

We are looking for people over the age of 18 in Melbourne's east who are:
- Committed to a community where rights and opportunities are equal for all;
- Able to lead as a role model, take initiative and work with a sense of fun and enthusiasm;
- Willing to assist people with their personal care needs; and
- Available for flexible work in various locations and hours, especially during out of school hours, weekends and school holidays (minimum two hour shifts).

We are particularly interested in employing people who are:
- Experienced in working with people through youth work, education, leadership, sport, trades, recreation and social networks;
- Experienced in areas such as problem solving, building community relationships, positive behaviour support and medical interventions;
- Interested in supporting people with medical needs (training provided);
- Willing to use their skills working with people who have complex behaviours.

Our support workers come from all walks of life, all backgrounds and an array of previous professions and experiences. This role requires:
